Lockout / Tag out - Safe isolation of services

Duration:
7 hours

Aim:
This course is designed to help operators and supervisors to understand how these systems work and how to use them to the best effect.

Objectives:
Upon completion of the course, participants should be able to:

- Describe why isolation procedures are needed
- Describe the procedures of how a safe isolation should be carried out
- Identify and describe a range of lockout/tag outs and when they should be implemented
- Describe how a group isolation is conducted
- Describe how an isolation is removed

Contents:

- Isolation- , why is isolation important?
- Isolation procedures- basic isolation procedures for safe operation
- Method statements and isolation
- Lockout/Tag out devices- range of lockout equipment and how they could be applied to old and new equipment
- Group procedures- isolation conducted by groups e.g. On large projects
- Isolation restart- Restarting operating equipment after maintenance adjustments cleaning or servicing
- Summary- recap of learning

Certification:
Institute of Health and Safety