

Electrical Safety

Duration:

3.5 hours

Aim:

This introductory course outlines the common hazards associated with working with electricity. It will identify basic safety concepts that should be taken when working with electricity.

Objectives:

- Identify the common electrical hazards found at the place of work
- Outline basic electrical safety principles
- Recognise the importance of lockout/tag out

Contents:

- Common electrical hazards
- Basic Electrical Safety Principles
- Lockout/Tag out
- Personal Protective Equipment
- Components
- Water
- Electrical Distribution Equipment
- Stored Energy
- Trouble Shooting
- Electrical Accident Response

Certification:

Institute of Health and Safety