

Safety of Maintenance Works

Duration:

6 hours

Aim:

To train participants to understand what types of hazards are involved in the maintenance sector. How to minimize risk related to ill health caused due to maintenance works.

Objectives:

- Assess current practices
- Understand and comply with the law
- Apply good practice
- Prevent incidents accidents and ill health

Contents:

- Introduction
- Legal duties (the competent person) following a health and safety policy.
- Identification of dangerous and harmful substances (COSHH) including MSDS.
- Explaining what is chemical, physical and biological agents
- Explaining the risk assessment process
- Manual handling practices
- Working at heights
- Permit to work
- Identifying electrical hazards
- Cold and hot environments
- Use of suitable personal protective equipment
- Introduction to Fire and First Aid
- Reporting

Certification:

Institute of Health and Safety